Review the questions below and choose THREE to answer as you search for articles on your topic. Write your answers and be prepared to share.

Choose THREE of the following six questions to answer:
(more on the back of this sheet)

1: What search features am I using and/or finding the most helpful?

2: What TYPES of sources am I seeing in my search results? Compare how these different types of sources might inform your topic.

3: What keywords seem to work best? Why? What strategies am I using to identify alternate keywords?
4: Give an example of how at least one article can be used in your paper. How does it support your topic?

5: What other aspects related to my topic am I noticing in my search results? How might these new ideas change my research strategy?

6: What is the most difficult thing about this search? What is not working, and what can I change to modify my approach?
